I was in anguish when I made this.

This was during “no contact” of an on and off again, 4 year toxic relationship.

I felt like I couldn't get my mind off of him .. us.

Our past, everything he had done to me, everything I had done to him... It was a lot of pain, ache, guilt, and shame.

I was having a lot of nightmares during this time.

Fav songs:

- Can't be Mine
- Pacify My Heart
- Turning Green

They really capture that feeling of a relationship that's ran its course, but is still so hard to let go of.
