This is a LOVE playlist. These are songs that remind me of fun times with an ex.. the same one I made all these heartbreak playlists about.

I made it while we were together in one of our "high" phases.

Fav Songs:

- Come 2 Me
- You and I in Unison
- Green Eyes

These songs in particular remind me of the beginning of our relationship, when things were still sweet.

As you can see I added the track "Thank You" 5 months after the rest of them... Some gratitude.

It's better to have loved and lost than to have never loved at all!
