Another sad playlist about my toxic relationship. Imagine how tired we are ...

He painted the clown, and I painted the girl. These songs are mostly slow and sad. Mixed with some "fun", chaos and anger.

The title of the playlist is named after lyrics from the second track "Vampire Banquet"

Fav Songs:

- I hope you Die (it's a love song)
- You Mean The Whole World to Me
- It's only Sex

"I love you I hate you I need you like I never did"

that's what this playlist says.
